Thank you Meredith for the update.

Last night I spoke with major auto manufacturers, parts producers and farmers and they are unequivocal that an extended blockade will shut down operations and cost jobs.

Our border community has gone through so much the last two years – and with the highest unemployment rate already, this latest crisis is a punch in the teeth just as we are clawing our way back.

Hi Irek,

\~

Just had a good call with Mayor Dilkins Chief Andrew about blockade. I understand you've also been in touch. Minister LeBlanc may call but both he and Mayor Dilkins are jammed all day. Would be good to get a download from you as well. I will keep you posted from my end as well. I understand that the isolation units will be announced shortly. That's some good news.
